Carefully read the paragraph below before signing and dating the application.

I understand that my employment will be contingent upon my submitting to a physical examination to assure that I am physically able to perform the type of employment for which I am applying. I consent to my urine sample being taken and used to determine whether I meet the Company's requirement concerning absence of recent drug use in order to be considered for employment. I further understand that medical and other information disclosed to the Company's examining physician or shared with the Company as part of the employment application process is not for treatment as a patient, and is not privileged. I understand that my employment will be subject to verification of the information I have provided on this application and any related documents or resume.

I understand that it may be necessary for the Company to use consumer reporting agencies to verify such information provided by me and that any information obtained may be retained by those agencies and subsequently used in later reports. I understand that the Company chooses consumer reporting agencies with care.

I understand that should use of a consumer reporting agency for verification of the information provided by me be deemed necessary, I will be contacted to complete releases to the parties from whom verification will be sought, and that I may make a written request to the Company location to which I applied for a copy of the verification report.

Alternatively, I may make a written request of the consumer reporting agencies for additional information as to the nature and scope of the verification report. I understand that if the need to correct or amend any statement on the verification report arises, I may notify the Company location to which I made application.

I understand that the Company will not make any unwarranted disclosure of information generated in the process of application to persons outside the company without my consent.

I understand that only U.S. citizens and aliens legally authorized to work in the U.S. are eligible for employment consideration, and that my eligibility will be subject to verification, as required by law, if I am selected for employment. In particular, aliens seeking full-time employment must provide proof of legal authorization to work in the U.S. on the type of job for which they are applying.

By typing my name below and clicking "Save," I hereby certify that the information above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I further acknowledge and understand that my electronic signature shall have the same legal effect as a handwritten signature.

This portion of your application will be detached and maintained separately. It will be used only when the information is relevant to your application. If employed, this information will not become part of your permanent employment record.

Criminal convictions will not automatically disqualify an applicant from employment. Do not include charges expunged, convictions adjudged "youthful offender" or "juvenile," or convictions for minor traffic violations (note: driving while under the influence is not considered a minor traffic violation; therefore, these convictions should be disclosed).

Have you ever been convicted of a violent crime punishable by more than 15 years imprisonment? No

Have you been convicted of any crime within the last seven years? No

Have you been arrested and charged with a crime, the prosecution of which is currently pending? No

If the answer is "yes" to any of these inquiries, identify the crime(s) you were convicted of and/or the crime(s) for which you are currently being prosecuted. For each such offense, please provide your legal name at the time of arrest, the court in which you were or are being prosecuted, any sentences or penalties imposed (including dates) and the terms of any probation(s) (including dates), if applicable.

By typing my name below and clicking "Save," I hereby certify that the information above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I further acknowledge and understand that my electronic signature shall have the same legal effect as a handwritten signature.

NOTE: The following 2 questions below are no longer valid and have been replaced with the questions above. The 2 questions below are only visible to Recruiter, Program Coordinator and HRBO Users to be able to view historic data on Candidates prior to the revision.

Effective September 2013

Have you, at any time on or prior to the date you signed the Application for Salaried Employment to which this sheet is attached, been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor (including any alcohol-related convictions) within the last five years? Do not include arrests without conviction, charges expunged, convictions adjudged "youthful offender" or "juvenile", or civil infractions involving traffic violations.

If yes, please briefly describe the circumstances of your conviction and your name at that time; indicating the date, nature, and place of the offense and disposition of the case including any rehabilitation. Your answer is looked upon only as one of the factors considered in the employment decision and is evaluated in terms of the nature, severity, and date of the offense.
